The Weekly Market Update – 8/25/25: Jackson Hole Emboldens Market Bulls

Major Indices (Price Returns)	Close	Last Week	Quarter-to-Date	Year-to-Date	Trailing 12-Months	All-Time High	% to High

Source: FactSet

Both equity and fixed income markets surged following dovish (lower interest rates) comments from the Federal Reserve Bank (Fed) Chairman.

Sturdy investor sentiment and broad equity gains reflect firm pro-growth expectations after a stretch of good news.

Entering the final week of August, equities are higher both for the month and quarter-to-date (QTD), marked by broad participation and evolving leadership.
